$2,100 FOR THE RED CROSS

Citizens in Town Responded Most Generously When Collectors Called on Thursday—Town's Share is $1,181, Township's Share $966

The GRIMSBY Town and Township lived up to their reputations as generous givers to war causes on Thursday last when the residents contributed $2,100 to the British Red Cross Fund. $1,181 of this amount was collected in the Town and $966 in the Township. Reeve Fleming had charge of the collections in the town and the work in the township was under the guidance of Reeve Farrell.

The committees in charge of the collections in the various wards in town did their work well. It was a dreary, drizzly day, but the workers went at it enthusiastically and that they did their work well is evidenced by the fine sum collected.

Ald. Randall had charge of the centre ward, Ald. Marsh the south ward and Ald. Hillier the north ward.

Fanny Ward to Appear at Grimsby's Popular Playhouse

FANNIE WARD in "UNCONQUERED" LASKY-PARAMOUNT

Robert Emmett, the celebrated stage and screen star, who recently made such a success as Bill Ryan in the Lasky-Paramount production of "Unconquered," will be seen at Moore's Theatre on Saturday, Nov. 10th, in support of Fanny Ward in "Unconquered," an unusual story of society life written especially for Fanny Ward by Beatrice C. De Mille and Leighton Clenn, the clever writers who are responsible for several other of Miss Ward's photodramatic successes. Others in the cast are Jack Deas, Tully Marshall, Little Billy Jacobs and Robert Van Duren.

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying.

—they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting.

—the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make? What answer will you make? Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

FISH, AND STILL MORE FISH

Fish and more fish and still more fish. Yes, Melinda, the Town Council had another fish session on Friday night last and as a result GRIMSBY is going to receive a second lot of Government fish. These fish are known as "Hanna Fish." They are the species of the fish tribe captured at great expense to the management in the early waters of the Atlantic Ocean and shipped to Toronto for delivery among the poor, half-starved citizens of Ontario. GRIMSBY included.

The council appointed Mr. J. P. Robertson as the agent here to handle the salt-water fish and Mr. J. H. Wells will be the agent for the fresh water fish. But in the words of "Penny" Farrow, the Council Chambers most honored guest, "What good are fish if you have no coal to cook them with."

The council made a grant of $200 to the Italian Red Cross and $300 to the war work department of the Y. M.C.A.

Council passed a motion instructing the Clerk to have a sign placed on the poles adjacent to the fire hall, warning the public not to tie their horses or leave automobiles standing in front of the fire hall door.

For all pains and tightness in the chest and back, and in fact, for all purposes for which the old-fashioned mustard plasters were used, Parke's Rub is much better. It is warming and stimulating to the parts to which it is applied. In handy tubes 25 cents each, at Parke's, Park's, Market Square, Hamilton.

OLD PARTY EXECUTIVES IN LINCOLN COUNTY FAILED TO AGREE UPON CANDIDATE

THANK YOU.

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincerest thanks to the citizens of GRIMSBY for their most generous response to my appeal for the British Red Cross fund, and also to the workers who gave their time and their labors to collect the envelopes. I know that the citizens of this fair village would answer the call for funds most readily, but their generous response on Thursday last was beyond my fondest expectations, and I am greatly pleased with your fine response.

Yours very truly,
CHAR. T. FARRELL, Reeve.

CHARLIE WAS NIDGE KILLED

Just as we go to press the sad news reaches GRIMSBY by telegraph that Charlie Wainwright, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wainwright, Ontario M.L.A. had been killed in the north.

He left GRIMSBY about ten days ago with a deer hunting party for the hunting grounds in Haliburton district. There were twelve in the party including his brother Frederick. No particulars as to how he met his death have been received.

EXEMPTION BOARD MEETS TO-MORROW

GRIMSBY'S Exemption Tribunal

The tribunal consisting of Messrs. Broome and Durland will hold daily sessions until further notice. The Tribunal will sit in the Council Chambers and all men claiming exemption will be ordered to report before this tribunal by mail.

Several local boys have already been ordered to either appear before the Board to-morrow morning or else present their claims in writing.

Mr. Geo. C. Whyte, the Military Representative has been a busy man the past two weeks preparing data on the different cases and his work before the Tribunal is much the same as a County Crown Attorney.

VICTORY LOAN COMMITTEE

The honorary committee for GRIMSBY and North GRIMSBY, who will have charge of the sale of all Victory Bonds in this district have been appointed.

Ald. H. H. Marsh has been named as captain of the team and he will have associated with him, Ald. Randall, Theo. Allan, Clerk of North GRIMSBY, and Mr. C. W. P. Carpenter.

This committee are now receiving full instructions and on Monday morning next when the Bonds are placed on the market will proceed to sell them.

BE A SHORT, BUY A VICTORY BOND.

SUPPLYING LUMBER TO AIRDROME

Work on the Beamsville Aviation Camp is being rushed rapidly ahead these days. Horse plows and tractor plows are working to beat the band. A great quantity of stone is being crushed on the property to be used in the laying of cement roads.

Several big boarding houses and hangars will be built before the snow flies. D. Marsh & Sons, of GRIMSBY, have the contract for supplying all lumber and timber that is being used and up-to-date have delivered over two carloads.

ADDITIONAL RED CROSS LIST

On pages 1 and 6 of this issue appears the list of the contributors to the British Red Cross in GRIMSBY. Since this list was put in type a second list has come in which brings the total up to $1,181.57.

Delegations From Both Committees Held Conference in the County Buildings on Saturday, but Failed to Pick Union Candidate.

HARMONY PREVAILED

J. D. Chaplin Agreed to Withdraw, but Liberals Stuck to Capt. Lovelace—Major Lancaster Suggested as the Third Man.

(St. Catharines Standard)

The executives of the two old political parties for the county of Lincoln assembled in two different halls in St. Catharines on Saturday, but not with the results that would best harmonize with the recent appeal of the premier nor the expressed sentiments of Friday's Liberal convention at Hamilton in favor of a complete burial of the party hatchet and a joining of hands for the support of the union cabinet.

From an outside point of view, the indications of co-operation between the men who undertook to represent the feelings of the several thousand voters of the county was perfect. Not on the inside there was little evidence that the magnanimity of the win-the-war spirit that is drawing the old parties together in numerous other constituencies had made a serious impression.

A conference committee was named by each executive, the joint meeting taking place later in the grand jury room of the county buildings, which and the outward appearance of serene harmony; each side was treated with a due amount of courtesy, the get-together spirit was in concrete evidence but dual willingness to scrap the old parties for the unionist movement was lacking.

That the other factor had to say, but the necessary desire to sacrifice was not present in sufficient quantities to bring the results that have been acquired by the party leaders.

The two party executives were represented at the conference by the following:

Conservative—R. J. Clark, Merritt, President; K. H. Shepherd, Niagara-on-the-Lake; C. H. Claus, Louth; W. J. Drope, H. Fleming, Theo. Allan, C. W. P. Carpenter, Grimsby; Jacob Smith, Byron; Honenberger, Theo. McGeechie, St. Catharines.

Liberal—J. E. Masters, Niagara-on-the-Lake; W. G. Sutton, Port Dalhousie; H. J. Bradler, Merritt; W. Randall, Grimsby; J. M. Elson, J. T. Petrie, P. A. Shepherd, W. J. Robertson, W. H. McCordick, Mrs. Wilson Taylor, Mrs. John McChive, St. Catharines.

Already Committed
W. J. Robertson, a former educationist, whose name for many years adorned several public and high school text books in Ontario, was the chief spokesman for the Liberal section of the gathering. His remarks were graceful and at the outset gave promise of overtures toward unity, but after completing the preamble of what had every promise of introducing an adorable proposition based on difference-making lines he imparted to the gathering the information that the Liberal executive had reached an unalterable conclusion that they had one choice only, Capt. E. J. Lovelace, a Liberal candidate twice defeated in times of peace but now at the front engaged in the practical business of pushing the Huns out of France and Belgium.

It was indifferent phraseology to the same effect that Mr. Robertson dropped this bit of enlightenment of what had transpired within the secrecy of his party executive, but it was tempered with a certain amount of oil-tempered emphasis that admitting of misunderstanding, and caused Mr. Drope to exclaim, "Then you are tied up to your candidate."

"Just as you are tied up to your candidate, Chaplin," came from one of Mr. Robertson's delegation.

Compromise Candidate
Mr. Drope announced that the Conservative executive had committed itself to Mr. Chaplin at a previous meeting, but that on that same afternoon, Mr. Chaplin was very fair and clearly expressed his willingness to step down, if it was thought that another man was desirable in the light of recent developments. Mr. Drope offered as evidence of the sincerity of Mr. Chaplin's remarks and the spirit with which the Conserva-

Facts and Fancies

By Frank Fairbairn

Mr. Wilfrid's Manifesto:

Mr. Wilfrid has issued his Manifesto and he is still opposed to the Military Act.

Mr. Wilfrid introduces a great many planks into his platform, on the tariff, on the high cost of living, and on almost every other conceivable subject in order to draw the people's attention away from the vital subject, the Military Act.

Mr. Wilfrid says that if he is returned to power that he will suspend the operations of the Military Act until such time as the people have an opportunity to vote on it. He also says he will submit the question to the people in the form of a referendum.

The Globe very strongly puts it when it says that the troops at the front want men and Mr. Wilfrid gives them words.

The weak point in Mr. Wilfrid's whole stand is, that he will delay sending reinforcements to the front until he gets a decision from the people to do so and suspending the decision from the people was against conscription then what would Mr. Wilfrid do? Mr. Wilfrid would naturally return to the voluntary system and if the voluntary system would not produce men, and we have nothing to show that it will, what would Mr. Wilfrid do then? The answer is that he would do what he has done right along, nothing.

Mr. Wilfrid has shown clearly by his conduct that he has no desire to send reinforcements to the front. In fact, he has asserted in Parliament and he has asserted in a statement later, that if he was returned to power he would immediately go to England and he would find out from the British Parliament exactly what they wanted.

I do not know of and I cannot conceive of any more foolish statement that a public man could make at this time than that of Mr. Wilfrid.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, the mighty statesman and eminent Canadian, would have to go to England to find out what was wanted, when any schoolgirl, or any schoolboy of the age of ten years could tell Mr. Wilfrid what was wanted, and that is men, and more men.

Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Mr. Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some people have said that language is the means of conveying our thoughts. Mr. Wilfrid is making this statement as shown by his conduct.

Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Mr. Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some people have said that language is the means of conveying our thoughts. Mr. Wilfrid is making this statement as shown by his conduct.

The one great blessing that we have to be thankful for is that west of Quebec and east of Quebec both Liberals and Conservatives will in a great extent support the Union Government.

In a great many counties the two parties will combine on one candidate.
In other counties, although there may be a Liberal and a Conservative in the field, each will be pledged to the support of the Union Government, so that outside of Quebec Mr. Wilfrid will have nearly as strong a following as he has figured on. Liberals and Conservatives have realized alike that this is the hour for action not for talk.

Canada will have lots of time in the future to discuss its tariff and its agricultural implements and its many other problems, but the problem and the only problem that should attract the people's attention to-day is how much can we help in the effort to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

Mr. Wilfrid is trying to condemn the Canadians and corporations, but there is not a big combine nor a big corporation in Canada to-day that was not formed under Mr. Wilfrid's Government previous to 1911. Mr. Wilfrid talks about reducing the high cost of living but he does not explain how a butcher can go out and buy a dressed hog under twenty-five dollars a hundred, nor how a drover can buy a good two-year-old steer under eighty or ninety dollars, nor how a dairyman can buy a good milch cow under a hundred and twenty-five dollars.

It is foolish for Mr. Wilfrid Laurier to talk about introducing some patriotic or care-all for the high cost of living, when everything that enters into human food in Canada is produced from the farms and the price at the farmer's gate is high because the demand is in excess of the supply.

Mr. Wilfrid proposes to make the farmers take loss for his hogs and his cattle and his grain and his potatoes than the market is willing to pay him at his gate, but before Mr. Wilfrid does that he should also provide the farmers with help at reasonable wages when the demand for labor is greater than the supply.

Mr. Wilfrid also proposes to conscript wealth and in the next breath he proposes to take the duty off luxuries so that the wealthy man can get his goods cheaper and best than the Government out of the duty. Mr. Wilfrid has a wonderful idea of political economy. Mr. Wilfrid has had his opportunity and he failed to grasp it.

A Great Drawing Team

By Augustus Bridge

A good drawing team is just as much of a joy to the man that owns it as it used to be in the bush-log days. We talk a good deal—some of us—about the great horses we used to handle the ribbons over in the bush, lifting out great loads of elm logs, sometimes 1,500 feet or 2,000, sometimes more according to the man who was telling it, from the stump to the skidroad and the concession line.

Certainly some of those teams could draw; and surely some of their drivers did use to talk about it. But there are good average hauling teams in the country now than there were in the bush days. Farmers have gone in for specializing on draughts and roadsters, because they understand that a poor team is bad economy when work has to be done in a hurry. Getting stuck with a load in the field is a dead waste of time and of temper. We used to be stuck often in the old days with some of those poor teams picked up any old way at an auction sale. But a good span of Clydes or Percherons nowadays is a real piece of insurance against wasting time with stuck loads.
The only thing that happens in that line with such horses is broken harness or a snapped reins.

Of course, a good deal depended on the driver as it does now. One of the best drawing teams ever known in an Ontario county would pull like a tractor engine for the time, but when it came to the hard men they saw now, it and jumped in the collar like a pair of angry Texas steers. When the boss pulled the lines over them and yelled, "Git down together!" they got down those Bob Hunters, and lifted the load, however, how they could lift it! No matter what the load was, grain, or logs, or gravel; it came out of the hole on to the high-road, just by the simple knack of pulling down together.

Just now the greatest hauling team ever known in Canada are engaged in lifting the biggest load that a team ever stood in front of. The load, $150,000,000 of Canadian Victory Bonds.

That's a tremendous load. The load is there all right. Canada has the money; twice as much, ready to pile up for victory. It's a matter of lifting the load. It's a matter of what team is to do it, and who will be the driver.

What's the best team for this job?
The Canadian Farmer and the Government of Canada.

If these two can't lift a great part of that load, you right so will leave it alone.

Who is the driver?
A great boss named Victory.
Victory. VICTORY!

OUR WEEKLY HEALTH BULLETIN

MEDICAL SUPERVISION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Where we have such a large number of children as we have in our town and city schools, the time spent on each one has to be very limited. Some regular routine has then to be considered in order to get through in the time allotted. Here the school nurse is of very material assistance to us. She arranges the dress for examination and does the clerical work. Printed cards are used to preserve the record of each child from year to year. In this way we can see what progress the child is making, and if our recommendations are being carried out a rapid survey of the child will show the general physical make up, noting nutrition, mouth breathing (indicating adenoids), presence of pedicul, anaemia, enlarged glands, etc. The mouth being opened, number of decayed teeth, color of gums, the presence of enlarged tonsils, cleft palate, sores on tongue, are noted. The ears are tested with watch, and any departure from normal estimated; also the presence of a discharge. The lungs and heart are tested, giving notes. But owing to lack of time our records here are not as complete as they should be.

The different defects are noted down on the card according to degree of departure from normal by placing No. 1, 2 or 3 in the spaces opposite, indicating good, slight, very bad.

The nurse calls at the homes of these children and explains to the parents or guardian what we have found wrong, and advises seeing the family physician, specialist or dentist, as indicated. She also reports on the home surroundings and offers any suggestions that she can in regard to the well-fare of the child. A tactful nurse can do much good in this way, and is very soon respected.

REAL VALUE

is based, not on the price paid for a commodity, but on the benefit derived. That is why Zam-Buk is the cheapest skin healer on the market—because the benefit derived is 25% greater than can be got from ordinary ointments. This is due to the fact that Zam-Buk is an oil medicine—100%. Ordinary ointments are 5% medicine and the balance animal fat.

The superiority of Zam-Buk is proved by the many cases of chronic skin trouble and old sores which yield to the power of Zam-Buk. All other treatments have failed. The unusual power of penetration which Zam-Buk possesses enables it to reach the underlying tissues, where skin troubles have their "root." Then the germicidal properties in Zam-Buk destroy all germs. Until this is done healing can never be thorough. The reason why sores that have been treated with ordinary ointments break out again is because the remedy has never got to the seat of the trouble, but has only healed over the outer skin. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, uproots skin diseases, and the cure is complete and permanent.

Zam-Buk should always be used for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, blood-poisoning, bad leg, piles, cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 2 for $1.25.

MAINLY FOR WOMEN

PATRIOTIC CAKES: THOSE WITH A MINIMUM OF SUGAR FILL REQUIREMENTS

Pastory cooks in England have been forbidden by government ordinance to use frosting on cakes or to enrich them with fillings, creams or otherwise to increase the amount of sugar used in their manufacture. It has all been worked down to a science and pastry cooks know just what percentage of sugar they may use in various types of sweet breads, pastry and cakes. Honey, sweet syrups and glucose are counted as sugar in this regulation so they cannot get around the sugar ordinance by using a substitute of that sort. Raisins and currants, however, and other dried fruits in which the sugar is part of the fruit and has not been added to it are not counted as sugar and so are very frequently used by way of adding to the sweet taste of the cake or pastry.

Of course, we in America are guided by no ordinance in this matter, but patriotism ought to guide us in not eating or making cakes with a great amount of sugar in their makeup. To use frosting on fresh, light cake is really a redundancy. The cake is more wholesome without it and if you are hungry enough to eat cake at all you are hungry enough to take it without the frosting. Sometimes a plain pastry cake may be dusted with a little powdered sugar by way of finishing it and this requires very little sugar compared with a frosting. A nut pressed in the middle of a freshly baked patty cake is also nice. For a layer cake you may spread the lower layer with jam or jelly, place the top layer on top of it and serve it either plain or with a dusting of powdered sugar. Two layers of fresh cake may be made into a very nice dessert by putting minced oranges, pineapple or sliced bananas between the layers as a filling. Fruits with considerable sugar in their makeup should need no additional sweetening when used in this way.

Although we have always thought of fruit cake as being very expensive and rich, as a matter of fact it is the type of cake that might better be called war-cake than most so-called layer cakes. In the first place we eat but small pieces of fruit cake. That is an advantage because the cake goes a long way and outlasts a lighter cake that is often in large pieces. Then, too, fruit cake depends on dried fruits for most of its sweetening, and on nuts to a great extent for its shortening. And since nuts and dried fruits are among the few things that we are urged to eat as substitutes for butter, sugar and such commodities, the fruit cake ought to be put on the list of war-time cakes.

I've Less Sugar.

In making cakes make a point always to use a little less sugar than formerly. Among your cake receipts choose the cake batter that contains the least amount of sugar. You will notice that members of your household have never liked it any the less for this sugar shortage. Some cakes as contain apple sauce in their makeup are excellent, even though the apples do need sweetening. Owing to the shortage of vanilla it is expensive and food specialists have urged us therefore to use spices rather than vanilla in flavoring cake. However, that is a matter of personal economy rather than patriotism or public spiritedness. Sugar and other foodstuffs we are most urged to conserve are those foods are needed for the army or to send to our Allies. They are necessities. Vanilla, like other luxuries, is not needed by them. No one suggests that the war can be won on vanilla though we have been told that it can be won on wheat flour and other necessities of diet.

Although in England various species of sweet syrups are counted in computing the percentage of sugar used in cakes and other sweetened dishes, still the fact remains that when we make a cake with molasses instead of sugar we are doing a patriotic act—small, though worth the line—because we are conserving sugar which can better be transported to the Allies than can molasses or syrup. Hence all sorts of ginger ought to come in for the attention of patriotic cooks nowadays.

Not every one knows that cakes as well as breads may be baked from whole wheat flour. And if there is economy of a large sort in using whole wheat flour for bread then there is also that sort of economy in using it for certain kinds of cake. Look on the directions of your favorite brand of whole wheat flour or Graham flour and you will be sure to see a rule for ginger cake or some other kind of cake that can be made from it.

Outmeal is used in certain kinds of cookies that are truly patriotic in their ingredients, as they call for comparatively little white flour. Here is the rule: Mix four cups of rolled oats with two cups of white flour, a scant teaspoon of soda, and a pinch of salt. Add two cups of brown sugar and one cup of butter or better substitute. Roll very thin and cut in squares. This makes a very large batch of cookies and should be baked or quartered for a small family.

If you use a few raisins or chopped dates in a plain cake batter, you can get along without any frosting and with little sugar in its makeup. Of course, you are using white flour, perhaps you are justified in using white flour for it. Chopped nuts, too, although they do not supply any sweetening, still do give enough flavor to a cake to make it unnecessary to use much sugar.

Popovers for Dessert.

Not quite a cake, but something that may be served in place of cake for dessert, and that will be liked especially by children, is a popover filled with whipped cream or with jam or jelly. Make ordinary popovers—and these require neither sugar nor butter, so they may be baked very economical. When they are just cool, break them open. They should be baked slowly and long so that they will have a crisp, substantial wall or crust. Now in the cavity place some sort of filling. You can vary this so that a popover with a different filling in it may be served without monotony at least once a week at luncheon. Sometimes put in a teaspoon of raspberry or damson or strawberry jam. Sometimes put in half a canned peach. Sometimes put in chopped dates and whipped cream. Sometimes put in a big stewed fig, with a little of the water in which it is stewed, boiled down until it is thick. And so on, vary the filling often enough to make this dessert useful to you.

Facts and Fancies

By Frank Fairborn

Sir Wilfrid's Manifesto:

Sir Wilfrid has issued his manifesto and he is still opposed to the Military Act.

Sir Wilfrid introduces a great many planks into his platform, on the tariff, on the high cost of living, and on almost every other conceivable subject in order to draw the people's attention away from the vital subject, the Military Act.

Sir Wilfrid says that if he is returned to power that he will suspend the operations of the Military Act until such time as the people have an opportunity to vote on it. He also says he will submit the question to the people in the form of a referendum.

The Globe very fittingly puts it when it says that the troops at the front want men and Sir Wilfrid gives them war.

The weak point in Sir Wilfrid's whole stand is that he will delay sending reinforcements to the front until he gets a decision from the people to do so and suspending the Military Act until such time as the people have an opportunity to vote on it. What would Sir Wilfrid do? Sir Wilfrid would naturally return to the voluntary system and if the voluntary system would not produce men, and we have nothing to show that it will, what would Sir Wilfrid do then? The answer is that he would do what he has done right along, nothing.

Sir Wilfrid has shown clearly by his conduct that he has no desire to send reinforcements to the front. In fact, he asserted in Parliament and he has asserted in a statement later, that if he was returned to power he would immediately go to England as he would find out from the British Parliament exactly what they wanted.

I do not know of and I cannot conceive of any more foolish statement that a public man could make at this time than that of Sir Wilfrid.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the mighty statesman and eminent Canadian, would have to go to England to find out what was wanted, when any schoolgirl, or any schoolboy of the age of ten years could tell Sir Wilfrid what was wanted,
and that is men, and more men.

Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Sir Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some persons have said that language is the means of concealing our thoughts. Sir Wilfrid in making this statement has shown that he is simply trying to make people believe that his thoughts are favorable.

The one great blessing that we have to be thankful for is that west of Quebec and east of Quebec both Liberal and Conservative will to a great extent support the Union Government.

In a great many counties the two parties will combine on one candidate.
In other counties, although there may be a Liberal and a Conservative in the field, each will be pledged to the support of the Union Government, so that outside of Quebec Sir Wilfrid will not have nearly so strong a following as he has figured on. Liberals and Conservatives have realized alike that this is the hour for action not for talk.

Canada will have lots of time in the future to discuss its tariff and its agricultural implements and its many other problems, but the problem and the only problem that should attract the people's attention to-day is how much can we help in the effort to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

Sir Wilfrid is trying to condemn the combines and corporations, but there is not a big combine nor a big corporation in Canada to-day that was not formed under Sir Wilfrid's Government previous to 1911. Sir Wilfrid talks about reducing the high cost of living but he does not explain how a butcher can go out and buy a dressed hog under twenty-five dollars a hundred, nor how a driver can buy a good two-year-old steer under eighty or ninety dollars, nor how a dairyman can buy a good milk cow under a hundred and twenty-five dollars.

It is foolish for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to talk about introducing some panacea or cure-all for the high cost of living, when everything that enters into human food in Canada is produced from the farms and the price at the farmer's gate is high because the demand is in excess of the supply.

Sir Wilfrid proposes to make the farmers take loss for his hogs and his cattle and his grain and his potatoes than the market is willing to pay him at his gate, but before Sir Wilfrid does that he should also provide the farmers with help at reasonable wages when the demand for labor is greater than the supply.

Sir Wilfrid also proposes to conscript wealth and in the next breath he proposes to take the duty off luxuries so that the wealthy man can get his goods cheaper and beat the Government out of the duty. Sir Wilfrid has a wonderful idea of political economy. Sir Wilfrid has had his opportunity and he failed to grasp it.

A Great Drawing Team

By Augustus Brille

A good drawing team is just as much of a joy to the man that owns it as it used to be in the best of days. We talk a good deal—some of us—about the great horses we used to handle the ribbons over in the bush, lifting out great loads of elm logs, sometimes 1,500 feet or 2,000, sometimes more according to the man who was telling it, from the stump to the chiroline and the cross-section line.

Certainly some of these teams could draw; and surely some of their drivers did use to talk about it. But there are good average hauling teams in the country now than there were in the bush days. Farmers have gone in for specializing on draughts and roadsters, because they understand that a good team is had economy when work has to be done in a hurry. Getting stuck with a load in the field is a dead waste of time and of temper. We used to be stuck often in the old days with some of those poor teams picked up any old way at an auction sale just a good span of Clydes or Percherons nowdays is a real piece of insurance against wasting time with stuck loads.
The only thing that happens in that line with such teams is broken harness or a snapped doubletree.

Of course a good deal depended on the driver. It does now. One of the best drawing teams ever known in an Ontario county would pull like a tractor engine for the boss, but when it came to the tired man they saw-sawed and jumped in the collar like a pair of balky Texas steers. When the boss pulled the lines over them and yelled, "Get down together!" they got down, those Bob Hunters, and lifted the load—hurray, how they could lift it! No matter what the load was, grain, or logs, or gravel; it came out of the hole on to the high-road, just by the simple knack of getting down together.

Just now the greatest hauling team ever known in Canada are engaged in lifting the biggest load that a team ever stood in front of. The load, $150,000,000 of Canadian Victory Bonds.

That's a tremendous load. The load is there all right. Canada has the money; twice as much, ready to pile up for victory. It's a matter of lifting the load. It's a matter of what team is to do it, and who will be the driver.

What's the best team for this job?
The Canadian Farmer and the Government of Canada.
If those two can't lift a great part of that load, you might as well have
it alone.

Who is the driver?
A great boss named Victory.
Victory VICTORY!

Where we have such a large number of children as we have in our town and city schools, the time spent on each one has to be very limited. Some regular routine has then to be considered in order to get through in the time allotted. Here the school nurse is of very material assistance to us. She arranges the dress for examination and does the clerical work. Printed cards are used to preserve the record of each child from year to year. In this way we can see what progress the child is making, and if our recommendations are being carried out a rapid survey of the child will show the general physical
make up, noting nutrition, mouth breathing (indicating adenoids, presence of pedicul, anemia, enlarged glands, etc.). The mouth being opened, number of decayed teeth, color of gum, the presence of enlarged tonsils, cleft palate, scars on tongue, are noted. The ears are tested with watch, and any departure from normal is noted; also the vision, of a child. The lungs and heart are next gone over, but only a rapid survey is made. The liver and bowels are complete as they should be. The child is then given a rapid physical types for defective vision, at the same time noting changes of eyelids and eye itself.

The different defects are noted down on the card according to degree of departure from normal by placing No. 1, 2 or 3 in the spaces opposite, indicating good, slight, very bad.

The nurse calls at the homes of those children and explains to the parents or guardian what we have found wrong, and advises seeing the family physician, specialist or dentist, as indicated. She also reports on the home surroundings and offers any suggestions that she can in regard to the welfare of the child. A tactful nurse can do much good in this way, and is very highly respected.

REAL VALUE

is based, not on the price paid for a commodity, but on the benefit derived. That is why Zam-Buk is the cheapest skin healer on the market—because the benefit derived is 100% greater than can be got from ordinary ointments. This is due to the fact that Zam-Buk is an ointment—100%. Ordinary ointments are 5% medicine and the balance animal fat.

The superiority of Zam-Buk is proved by the many cases of chronic skin trouble and old sores which yield to the power of Zam-Buk after all other treatments have failed.

The unusual power of penetration which Zam-Buk possesses enables it to reach the underlying tissue, where skin troubles have their "root." Then the germicidal properties in Zam-Buk destroy all germs. Until this is done healing can never be thorough. The reason why sores that have been treated with ordinary ointments break out again is because the remedy has never got to the seat of the trouble, but has only healed over the outer skin. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, spreads skin disease, and the cure is complete and permanent.

Zam-Buk should always be used for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, blood-poisoning, bad leg, piles, cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

PATRIOTIC CAKES. THOSE WITH A MINIMUM OF SUGAR FILL REQUIREMENTS

Patriotic cakes in England have been forbidden by government ordinance to use frosting on cakes or to decorate them with fillings, creams or otherwise to increase the amount of sugar used in their manufacture. It has all been worked down to a science and patriotic cakes know just what percentage of sugar they may use in various types of sweet breads, pastries and cakes. Honey, sweet syrups and glucose are counted as sugar in this regulation so they cannot get around the sugar ordinance by using a substitute of that sort. Raisins and currants, however, and other dried fruits in which the sugar is part of the fruit and has not been added to it are not counted as sugar and so are very frequently used by way of adding to the sweet taste of the cake or pastry.

Of course, we in America are guided by no ordinance in this matter, but patriotism ought to guide us in not eating or making cakes with a great amount of sugar in their makeup. For use frosting on fresh, light cake is really a redundancy. The cake is more wholesome without it and if you are hungry enough to eat cake at all you are hungry enough to take it without the frosting. Sometimes a plain pastry cake may be dusted with a little powdered sugar by way of finishing it.

and this requires very little sugar compared with a frosting. A nut pressed in the middle of a freshly baked party cake is also nice. For a layer cake you may spread the lower layer with jam or jelly, place the top layer on top of it and serve it either plain or with a dusting of powdered sugar. Two layers of fresh cake may be made into a very nice desert by putting minced oranges, pineapple or sliced bananas between the layers as a filling. Fruits with considerable sugar in their makeup should need no additional sweetening when used in this way.

Although we have always thought of fruit cake as being very expensive and rich, as a matter of fact it is the type of cake that might better be called war-cake than most so-called layer cakes. In the first place we can buy small pieces of fruit cake. That is an advantage because the cake goes a long way and contains a lighter cake than is often in large pieces. Then, too, fruit cake depends on dried fruits for most of its sweetening, and on nuts to a great extent for its shortening. And since nuts and dried fruits are among the few things that we are urged to eat as substitutes for butter, sugar and such commodities, the fruit cake ought to be put on the list of war-time cakes.

The Less Sugar.

In making cakes make a point always to use a little less sugar than formerly. Among your cake receipts choose the cake better that contains the least amount of sugar. You will notice that members of your household have never liked it any the less for this sugar shortage. Such cakes as contain apple sauce in their makeup are excellent, even though the apples do need sweetening. Owing to the shortage of vanilla it is expensive and food specialists have urged us therefore to use apples rather than vanilla in flavoring cakes. However, that is a matter of personal economy rather than patriotism or public spiritedness. Sugar and other foodstuffs we are most urged to conserve are those foods are needed for the soldier or to send to our Allies. They are all necessities. Vanilla, like other luxuries, is not needed by them. No one suggests that the war can be won or vanilla though we have been told that it can be won on wheat flour and other necessities of diet.

Although in England various types of sweet syrups are counted as sugar in computing the percentage of sugar used in cakes and other sweet dishes, still the fact remains when we make a cake with molasses instead of sugar we are doing a patriotic act—small, though worth the doing—because we are conserving sugar which can better be transported to the Allies than can molasses or syrup. Hence all sorts of ginger ought to come in for the attention of patriotic cooks nowadays.

Not every one knows that cakes as well as breads may be baked from whole wheat flour. And if there is economy of a large sort in using whole wheat flour for bread then there is it for certain kinds of cake. Look on the directions of your favorite brand of whole wheat flour or Graham flour and you will be sure to see a rule for ginger cake or some other kind of cake that can be made from it.

Oatmeal is used in certain kinds of cookies that are truly patriotic in their ingredients, as they call for comparatively little white flour. Here is the rule: Mix four cups of rolled oats with two cups of white flour, a scant teaspoon of soda, and a pinch of salt. Add two cups of brown sugar and one cup of butter or better substitute. Roll very thin and cut in squares. This makes a very large batch of cookies and should be halved or quartered for a small family.

If you use a few raisins or chopped dates in a plain cake batter, you can get along without any frosting and with little sugar in its makeup. Of course, you are still using white flour, perhaps you are justified in using white flour for it. Chopped nuts, too, although they do not supply any sweetening, still do give enough flavor to a cake to make it unnecessary to use much sugar.

Popovers & Bannocks.

Not quite a cake, but something that may be served in place of cake for dessert, and that will be liked especially by children, is a popover filled with whipped cream or with jam or jelly. Make ordinary popovers and these require neither sugar nor butter, so they may be baked very economical. When they are just cooked, break them open. They should be baked slowly and long so that they will have a crisp, substantial wall or crust. Now in the cavity place some sort of filling. You can vary this so that a popover with a different filling in it may be served without monotony at least once a week at luncheon. Sometimes put in a teaspoon of raspberry or damson or strawberry jam. Sometimes put in half a canned peach. Sometimes put in chopped dates and whipped cream. Sometimes put in a big stewed fig, with a little of the water in which it is stewed, boiled down until it is thick. And so on, vary the filling often enough to make this dessert useful to you.

The marriage was solemnized in St. Andrews Church, GRIMSBY, on Thursday afternoon last, of Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mrs. Ross, Mountain St. to Capt. T. (Ray) Johnson, 1st Battalion, C.E.F., later of the 7th South Lancashire, and now of the 2nd C.O.R., second son of Mrs. Theo. Johnson.

Mr. George M. Sweet of Smith GRIMSBY, who has purchased the Swackhamer residence on Kidd Ave. GRIMSBY, held an auction sale on Tuesday, when Mr. Jas. A. Livingston sold a fine lot of cattle, horses and implements for extremely low prices.

Mr. Sweet was more than pleased with the result of his sale as it netted him the nice sum of $2,500.00. Besides this sum Mr. Sweet has disposed of, previous to the sale, nearly $700 worth of cattle, hay and other farm produce.

Pte. Harry H. Gave, an old GRIMSBY boy and son of Mrs. Geo. Gave, North GRIMSBY, returned home from the front on Saturday night last and is at present at his home in Hamilton.

Pte. Gave will be remembered as a ten mile runner of note a few years ago. He went overseas with the 10th and was all through the hard winter campaign last winter "getting his feet" at Vimy Ridge on April 19th, when he left a part of his leg behind him. He will be confined to hospital for sometime yet and will be fitted with a cork foot.

DEATH OF MRS. BERT MARSHAW

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Marshaw at GRIMSBY, Beamsville and Vinemount will learn with deep regret the death of Mrs. Marshaw in Welland Hospital on Tuesday evening, November 6th, after a brief illness.

The late Mrs. Marshaw was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Strangway of Vinemount, and was married on December 12, 1913, less than two years ago.

The funeral will take place on Thursday, November 8th, services in the Methodist Church, Pontiffrid, at two o'clock in the afternoon, interment in the cemetery at the same place.

The young husband will receive the sympathy of all his friends in this part of the country in his sudden and severe bereavement.

OLD PARTY EXECUTIVES

Belgium to fill the gaps of the "British" and "Canadian" and generally the oldest son of the late E. A. Lancaster, Liberal's representative in the Commons for fifteen years.

"No Commemoration."

But the metaphorical force was up. The statement was placed before the conference by one of Mr. Bostrom's followers that "no commemoration" had been received to the effect that such compromise negotiations were to be brought forward.

Mr. Drope then demanded from J. M. Elson, president of the Liberal Association, if the latter had not informed his executive of his visit to Elson's office that morning and of his intention that a deputation would meet a deputation from the Liberal Association with a view to reaching an understanding that would avoid a war-time contest if possible.

Mr. Elson declared he had no notified his executive.

Mr. Petrie nevertheless held to the contention that no commemoration in the complete accepted parliamentary sense of the word had been received—that of the written order—was before the meeting, consequently they had nothing sufficiently official to act upon, and thus the outside dream of a complete, sacrificing, strife-avoiding, party-differences-sinking achievement structure which seemed possible at the opening of the conference perished in its initial stages as far as that meeting was concerned, and the adjournment was reached with the grim, menacing glare of party strife still looming at liberty when the grave seemed all dog and running to receive it.

TWO BIG STORES Overflowing with New Merchandise

Listen People, let us be perfectly frank about this matter. Broker Learoyd of Windsor is here and must positively cut this stock in half in 19 days selling. Most emphatic and startling bargains ever offered in Canada. A special sale, unparalleled in recent years. We have the stock in tremendous quantities. Just think, Thirty Thousand Dollars tied up in merchandise and forced to get relief. We can sell to-day to the wholesaler for less than they can buy, but we prefer giving the benefit of these prices to our true customers that stand by us the year in and the year out. With such opportunities for downright saving, the people will load up enough to do for years. Thousands will profit by this great event.

The Broker is eliminating the entire profit. We realize that this is a radical step, but money talks and it is needed here to meet the bank's demand. It will take an army of good buyers to turn the trick. High Cost of Living has no terrors to the crowds that attend the great Broker's Sale. Look after your best interests and have your hand on the latch of the door opening morning. Doors locked to the public Friday all day, Nov. 9th.

OPENING SALE DAY SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10th, 8.30
